Parliamentary Election Results in Ireland, 1801-1922

by Brian Mercer Walker
This is the fourth volume in the series of publications ancillary to the 'New History of Ireland' and a companion to Walker's later volume 'Parliamentary Election Results in Ireland 1918-1992'. Together these volumes give the results of every election held at the Dáil, Westminster, Stormont and Strasbourg up to 1992. Packed with core data revealing the minutae of the Irish electorate, it is a useful resource for any historian of modern Ireland.

In this podcast, Laura McAtackney aims to re-focus our attention away from the personal narratives of oral testimonies as well as the documents of government archives in terms of how we understand the Northern Ireland Troubles and its continuing presence.
The parliamentary papers include all kinds of information about Ireland and its relationship with Britain during this period; social, economic and scientific. Census information is included, as are political and military developments. The link below will open the external site in a new window: https://www.southampton.ac.uk/library/index.page. The result was declared on 28 December 1918, to allow time for votes cast by members of the armed forces to be included in the count. 3 Not an election. McCan died. Elections.
